

FASHION DESIGN SUPERIOR STUDIES

FASHION DESIGN SUPERIOR ARTISTIC STUDIES

The fashion industry is an economic and cultural reference both worldwide and national. This competitive and international environment requires a higher qualification and a greater specialisation to compete within the sector.

The tuition towards the new official qualification in fashion design superior artistic studies offers extensive training built on theoretical, technological and creative knowledge specific to this field. It also offers knowledge in the multidisciplinary fields, both strategic and business, that are related to it.

This education is equivalent to the European Graduate Qualification, and will allow you to progress to post-graduate, master's and phd courses. Complete training for the future fashion and accessories designers.

MORE THAN A PROGRAM OF STUDIES

Conferences and master classes.

Within our program of conferences, discussions and master classes, you will get to know the experiences of the sector told by the professionals themselves. You will be able to raise your doubts which will in turn be answered by those who have first-hand knowledge of the profession.

Attendance at fashion fairs and fashion conferences.

Every year we promote various initiatives to visit and join fashion fairs and conferences which are held in our field.

Visits to companies in the fashion sector.

Through visits to companies in the industry you will learn about the reality of the industrial and business aspects of the fashion sector.
